

Children's Center Summer Reading 2017

CENTRAL LIBRARY • 115 SOUTH AVENUE • 428-8150

The Children's Center is on the second floor of the Bausch & Lomb Public Library Building

Registration begins on Monday, June 26

Read daily and earn prizes.

Bonus prize entries for program attendance!

Grand Prizes: Book Bundles, tickets to the Strong Museum of Play, the Seneca Park Zoo, and the Rochester Museum & Science Center!

Names will be drawn for prizes on Monday, August 21

All prizes must be claimed by September 1

Summer reading programs offer an opportunity for families to enjoy learning and enrichment activities together. Without these summer learning experiences, children often slip down the "summer slide" and return to school unprepared to learn at grade level. Research proves that children who participate in public library summer reading programs are better prepared to score higher on reading achievement tests than those who do not participate.

In Jest: Build a Better World

Monday, July 10: 10:30-11:30am

Kate Gleason Auditorium
Nels will perform daring feats of danger, juggle various scary items and fruit, and if we are lucky, he will even balance on his unicycle.

Juggling Workshop

Monday, July 10: 1-2pm

Youth Program Room
Anyone, no matter how young or old, can learn how to juggle, especially,
when they are working with the master
Nels Ross himself!

In Jest: The Greatest Show on Mirth

Monday, July 10: 7-8pm

Kate Gleason Auditorium
This will be a laugh-until-it-hurts variety show that blends clean comedy, flying objects, acts of balance, absurd theatrics, and assorted fruits and vegetables.

Rap, Rock & Read with Miss Nina
